1. 英语作文分享交友经验

Everyone needs friends. A friend can give us help and share our difficulties and happiness. But how can we make friends?

First, to make friends, you must be friendly to others. Smile at others and you are sure to get a smile in return. You should try to make a stranger feel at home wherever he happens to be. Think more of others than of yourself and never judge a person by his appearance and clothes.

Second, friends should negotiate instead of quarrel.

When you don't agree someone, please discuss with him.

Finally, never believe in those who leave you when you are in trouble. And never leave your friend when he is in trouble. Remember, a friend in need is a friend indeed.

Friends should be faithful to each other. So long as you can put your friend's interests in front of yours, you will have a lot of good friends. (162 words)

其次，朋友之间应该商量而不是争吵。当与别人有分歧时，要和他一起讨论。

It is difficult for them to make friends correctly. Some people like making friends abroad and are willing to be friends with the majority of people. They classify their friends into different levels. They hold the view that one more friend, one more way. When they meet with challenges and difficulties, friends usually lend a helping hand to us and come up with effective solutions. Just as the saying goes: depend on parents at home and depend on friends outside. In addition, friends can figure out our weaknesses and strengths in front of us. So it is helpful to correct our shortcomings and improve our ability. Just because of this, we can benefit a lot from friends during the time of communicating with them. On the contrary, the others have different ideas. They are cautious about strangers. Only when someone gets their respect and trust can she or he becomes their friend. Even though they are outgoing, they will keep far away from strangers and be indifferent to them. 北京亮起来了 It can avoid being tricked but at the same time, they lose many personal relations. Maybe these people only a few friends, but they are long for pure friendship. As far as I am concerned, we should learn to how to make friends seriously. When we choose friends, we had better learn more about a person and make a wise choice. Real friendship is based on honesty and trust. Society is too complex for teenagers to adapt to, so we had better not make too much friends casually. Good and evil people mix up in society, so we should pay more attention to making friends with the strangers. We can share common interests and similar personality with friends. Apart from this, we should not be capital about all of people and refuse to make friends with anyone. We should understand that friends are our valuable gifts.
