Saying good-bye to childhood , we step into another important time in the pace of young , facing new situations , dealing with different problems.....

everyone has his own understanding of young , it is a period of time of beauty and wonders , only after you have experienced the sour , sweet , bitter and salty can you really become a person of time of young is limited , it may pass by without your attention , and when you discover what has happened , it is always too late the young well means a better time is waiting for you in the near future , or the situation may be opposite.

having a view on these great men in the history of human being , they all made full use of their youth time , to do things that are useful to society , to the whole mankind , and as a consequence , they are remembered by later generations , admired by someone in the time of young , although you may not get achievements as these great men did , though not for the whole world , just for yourself , for those around !

the young is just like blooming flowers , they are so beautiful when blooming , they make people feel happy , but with time passing by , after they withers , most people think they are so it is the same with young , we are enthusiastic when we are young , then we may lose our passion when getting older and we must treasure it , don ' t let the limited time pass by , leaving nothing of significance.

Dream, with each one of us.

Dream is beautiful, it is the bottom of my heart the most beautiful expectations, so the dream also become our long-held beliefs.

Dream is the sun, it makes people from impetuous to solid, from the hesitation to the firm, and on the road to success.

Dream is powerful, it is the life source of forward momentum;

Lofty dreams can inspire all potential.

Because of this we will go to dream, to grasp the dream, the pursuitofdreams.

Goodafternoon!Ladiesandgentlemen!

Iamveryhappytohavetheopportunitytoattendthis

Competition.

Mytopic today is “ NeverSaySorryAgain! ”

Doyoufeelsorryfortheanimalsthatarekilledbythe millionseveryday?

Dowereallyneedtokillanimals?

Let us now think of the reasons for using dead animals.

People often use animals for food, make-up, medicine and you know how much a mink coat cost?

A report said in an open letter published recently, a Dutch animal-rights group has asked their much-loved Queen to stop up pointing out that making clothing from fur represents cruelty to animals. " Fur belongs to animals, not to human beings. "

Nowadays a lot of greedy people hunt and kill wild animals and birds, so as to make money by selling their hides at high and of killings should be stopped and seriously not take action to protect the wild animals and birds, one day

find himself a very lonely creature on earth indeed.

Until such a day, when we finally realized that we no longer have these friends or neighbors, what are we human beings going to say? Sorry? No, it is too late to say sorry to them.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please consider what I have said to are fully on whether we really need to use animals for our pleasure if you have come to the conclusion should now change our attitudes so that we never say sorry again to the animal population.

Thank you!
