节日作文之西方节日介绍英语作文

11. the spring festival is more than a festival
12. an exotic festival
13. chine are celebrating some western festivals, and vice versa.

14. some most celebrated festivals in our country are the essence of our long history and rich culture.

15. currently, the word “ christmas ” has evolved into a symbol of happiness and gifts.

16. people tend to have an increasing liking for observing western festivals

17. in the circumstances of globalization model in the course of globalization, western culture has flooded into china at an almost non-stop rate. along with it come western festivals, the most influential of which is christmas. as a result of this “ culture invasion ” , more and more chinese people, particularly the youth, are abandoning traditional chinese festivals. there is even a prediction that the spring festival will ultimately be replaced by christmas. however, personally i am not in favor of this statement, as the spring festival is a kind of cultural heritage serving as a spiritual legacy for all of us to cling to, regardless of any hindrance.

first of all, observing christmas does not mean that the spring festival can be neglected. the spring festival has its roots in chinese history, from which it requires its identity and meaning irreplaceable by christmas. as christmas stemmed from western civilization, it can't easily fit in with chine society, let alone take the place of the spring festival.

condly, the spring festival express our true emotions while christmas cannot. often, the spring festival arouses a feeling of eternal harmony, creates a sense of happiness, and conveys a message of family. however, christmas goes no
